

Personal Reflection

Each day draws us closer to the second coming of Jesus Christ. How does this reality keep you alert?

There is a juxtaposition of the deeds of darkness and the armor of light, of the behavior of the day and the behavior of the night. How do you respond when you find that you are living more in the darkness than in the light?

As we clothe ourselves with Christ, it means that the internal changes taking place through the power of the Spirit are impacting the way we live. What outward evidence is there that God is at work to transform your heart?

Take time to thank God for the work of his Spirit.

Thoughts/Questions/Prayer Response:

■ ■ ■ ■ ■
Memory Verse: Romans 13:13-14

“Let us behave decently, as in the daytime, not in orgies and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and debauchery, not in dissension and jealousy. Rather, clothe yourselves with the Lord Jesus Christ, and do not think about how to gratify the desires of the sinful nature.”

For VerseMinder go to <http://soundliving.org/verseminder.shtml>