

7. What does God do? (What does the “righteousness from God” do for us?)

8. On what basis does God do it?

9. Who does this righteousness come from?

10. (3:25-26) What did God do?

11. Why did He do it? (Two reasons)

12. (3:28) How does this “righteousness from God” become ours?

Memory Verse: Romans 3:21-24

But now a righteousness from God, apart from law, has been made known, to which the Law and the Prophets testify. This righteousness from God comes through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe. There is no difference, for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that came by Christ Jesus.

Personal Reflection

This passage is full of legal language. In your own words, express the meaning of:

- God’s righteousness
- Justification by grace
- Justification by works

God has provided a way to right relationship with him through Christ. He provides it freely—often. What does this tell us about the heart of God?

Guilt has weight—a weight that we cannot do anything about. Nothing this world offers can eliminate the weight of our sin. But God, in His justice, has provided a way of atonement through Jesus. What is your response to such a tremendous gift?

There is no greater news on earth! What prohibits us from being more proactive about sharing this good news with others?
