

6. What are the three illustrations in verses 22-24; 25-27; and 28-31?

What did people do? What did God do? And how did people respond?

7. Why will someone who has never heard of Jesus go to hell when he dies?

Memory Verse: Romans 1:20

“For since the creation of the world God’s invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature—have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made, so that men are without excuse.”

Review: Romans 1:16-17

“I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God for the salvation of everyone who believes: first for the Jew, then for the Gentile. For in the gospel a righteousness from God is revealed, a righteousness that is by faith from first to last, just as it is written: ‘The righteous will live by faith.’”

Personal Reflection

God is just, kind and fair. He has revealed himself to all people, even though they deny it. His invisible qualities have been made known, yet people deny this truth. Do you know people who worship and acknowledge nature but deny God? What is your response to them?

God’s wrath is real. The consequences of sin are sure. God gives us over to the things we desire—sometimes to our ultimate destruction. God’s justice is something we sometimes wrestle with. How can God love us despite our sin, yet give us over to our sinful desires?

If you are a believer, you know that you once gave way to unbelief. How did the Spirit of God reveal himself to you and enable you to believe?

If you have not yet believed, what barriers stand in the way?
